A World Of Individual Opportunity: The Vision Of Egalitarian
Capitalism

Gavin Oldham OBE
at Z/Yen
5th August 2021

“We hold these truths to be self-evident:

- that all are created equal;
- that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights;
- that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.”

Thomas Jefferson

Egalitarian Capitalism

Capital Participation for all

Intergenerational rebalancing

Capital participation for all

Some Key Ingredients

- A new drive for personal share ownership, to re-connect people with business;
- Post-virus re-capitalisation to include direct personal share ownership, new issue participation and a close check on the operation of pre-emption rights;
- Re-balancing the scales between private equity and public markets
- Reviewing 'shared ownership', particularly for young people, and the impact of personal debt; and
- Encouragement for financial education in the workplace and through organisations such as Citizen's Advice.

How Big Tech can enable a worldwide shift from reliance on earned income to living on the dividends accruing from the technological revolution ..

... and how issuing equity shares in recognition of data can be the catalyst to make it all happen

POLLING QUESTION

How would you prefer to see giant tech made more accountable?

- Using anti-trust measures to weaken their quasi-monopoly?
- Requiring them to issue equity voting shares to their customers in respect of stored and harvested personal data?
- Do nothing?

Inter-generational rebalancing

What is a Child Trust Fund - and why does it matter to me?

IHT receipts and taxpaying estates

POLLING QUESTION

How would you like to see Inheritance levies handled?

- IHT charged at current levels to go into current public expenditure as at present?
- This same percentage treated as a levy to fuel inter-generational re-balancing for disadvantaged young people?
- All inheritance taxes or levies should be abolished?

Making it happen ..

Founded in 1990 to enable more people to enjoy straightforward investing, The Share Centre has not only led the way in popular capitalism but has generated value for both The Share Foundation and the SHARE initiative in Cambridge thesharecentre:

believes that all young people have great potential to enjoy adult life to the full, and is determined to help them do just that through the provision of financial education and resources, and encouraging a positive attitude for the future

KING'S COLLEGE CAMBRIDGE
in association with the FACULTY OF ECONOMICS and the SHARE initiative (Supporting Human Achievement through Research based on Egalitarianism)

Stipendiary Research Fellowship in the Economics of Inequality 2021-2025
